

Filename: comptia-itfunc0u61-2-3-1-web-browser-settings

Show Name: CompTIA IT Fundamentals (Exam FC0-U61)

Topic Name: Software and Applications

Episode Name: Web Browser Settings

Description: In this episode, Don and Ronnie configure and use features found in a web browser. They show how to enhance the browsing experience with add-ons, private-browsing, popup and script blockers. The team also shows how to check certificate validity.

Keywords: caching, private browsing, proxy settings, certificates, popup blockers, script blockers.

Web Browser Settings

---

- Given a scenario, configure and use web browsers
  - Caching/clearing cache
    - Scenario: Cached Credentials
    - e.g. show how to do it
  - Deactivate client-side scripting
    - Scenario: Scripting attacks
    - this is javascript
    - show in IE and/or Firefox
  - Browser add-ons/extensions
    - Scenario: Makes it easier to browse.
    - Add/Remove
    - Enable/disable
    - Remember that some browsers will not have as many as others.
  - Private browsing
    - Scenario: Delete stored cookies, history, or temp files on exit
    - Doesn't store previously cached info for another session.
  - Proxy settings
    - Scenario: Faster connection
    - sends all web traffic to another server
    - User connect to the proxy
    - Web server sends to the proxy
  - Certificates
    - Scenario: Check Website Validity
    - Valid
    - Invalid
  - Popup blockers
    - Scenario: blocks ads
    - IE, right click to add menu bar > tools
  - Script blockers
    - Scenario: must prevent websites from running flash, java or javascript
    - Add ons
  - Compatible browser for application(s)
    - Scenario: websites that may not look right in certain browsers.
    - <http://www.browsercompatible.com/check>